DATA PRACTICES ADVISORY

The information requested on the application is necessary, either to identify you or to assist in determining your suitability for the position for which you are applying. You may legally refuse, but refusal to supply the requested information will mean that your application for employment may not be considered.

Information requested on your application that is defined by State Statute as public may be released on request and includes job history, education and training, rank on our eligibility list, relevant test scores, veteran's status, and work availability.

Your name is private except when you are certified as eligible for appointment to a vacancy or selected as a finalist for the position. Certain other information requested on your application is private and may be released only to you or to governmental entities authorized access by law (MS 13.02, Subd. 12). Private data contained above:

NAME: Used to identify you in relation to other applicants.

LOCAL/PERMANENT ADDRESS/PHONE NUMBERS: Used to contact you regarding your application's status. You are not legally required to provide this information. Failure to provide this information may result in a delay in processing or notifying you of your application's status.

LICENSE INFORMATION: Used to certify applicants for position where State law requires appropriate license. You are legally required to provide this information. Failure to provide this information may result in your rejection as an applicant for these positions.

AGE RANGE: Use to accurately certify applicants for certain types of work according to State law. You are legally required to provide this information. Failure to provide this information may result in rejection of your application.

NOTICE TO MINORS: Minors from whom private data or confidential data is collected have the right to request that parental access to the private data be denied.

CITIZENSHIP STATUS: Used to certify applicants for work in the United States as determined by laws of the United States Department of Labor and the State of Minnesota. Failure to provide this information may result in rejection of your application.

EMPLOYMENT: If you are selected for employment with the City, the following additional information about you will be public: your name, actual gross salary and salary range; contract fees; actual gross pension; the value and nature of your fringe benefits; the basis for and the amount of any added remuneration, such as expenses or mileage reimbursement, in addition to your salary; your job title; job description; bargaining unit (if applicable); the dates of your first and last employment with the City; the status of any written complaints or charges against you while at work, regardless of whether or not they have resulted in disciplinary action; the final disposition of any disciplinary action taken against you, specific reasons for it, and all supporting documentation about your case; terms of any agreement settling administrative or judicial proceedings; your work location and work telephone number; your employee identification/badge number; honors/awards received; your education/training background and previous work experience; your work-related continuing education; and payroll time sheets. Information not listed as public, which is maintained as part of your personnel record, is private, and will not be shared with anyone but those members of our staff and appointing authorities whose work assignment requires access, those persons authorized by law to have access, and those persons to whom you have given your informed written consent. Examples, but not an exclusive listing, of those authorized by law to have access to personnel data include labor organizations to the extent they need it in the conduct of normal business as your representative, insurance providers, City contractors whose contracts require access (e.g., the City Attorney or insurance claims adjuster), Public Employees Retirement Association, Internal Revenue Service, Social Security Administration, State Department of Employment and Security and any other entity authorized by law. Personnel data will be disclosed as required by a court order or for the purposes of wage attachments, and as may be required by any State or Federal law subsequently enacted.

This information is subject to change consistent with subsequent amendments to the MN Government Data Practices Act. For further information refer to MN Statutes Ch. 13.

CONVICTION INFORMATION

No person shall be disqualified from public employment solely or in part because of prior conviction of a crime or crimes, unless the crime or crimes for which convicted directly relate to the position of employment sought. In determining the effect of a conviction, the City shall consider the requirements of MN Stat. Ch. 364. Applicants who are finalists for certain positions will be subject to a criminal background investigation. I understand that a conviction of a crime related to this position may result in my being rejected for this job opening.

PHYSICAL AND PSYCHOLOGICAL EXAMINATION

If you are hired for this position, you may be required to undergo a physical and/or psychological examination at the City's expense to determine whether or not you are able to perform the duties of this position in an effective and safe manner and whether or not reasonable accommodations are necessary for you.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL TESTING

The City of Marshall has adopted a drug and alcohol testing policy. The purpose of this policy is to provide for a safe public and employment atmosphere, as set forth by MN Statute 191.951. As a job applicant for any City position, you are subject to testing under the policy and will be asked to provide a urine specimen after you have received a conditional offer of employment. You may legally refuse to undergo a drug or alcohol test. If you refuse, the City's conditional offer of employment may be withdrawn. If you undergo an initial screening test with a positive test result, a confirmatory test verifying that result must be performed. You have the right to explain a confirmatory test's positive result within three working days after receiving notice. You have the right to request and pay for a confirmatory retest of the original sample within five working days after receiving notice.

If the confirmatory test does not confirm the original positive test result, no adverse personnel action based on the confirmatory test may be taken against you. A job applicant who receives a positive test result and fails or refuses a confirmatory test or does not request in writing a confirmatory retest within five working days after notice, may be refused employment and will be notified of the reason for such refusal. Except as otherwise noted, the job applicant has no additional right of appeal with the City of Marshall. The Drug and Alcohol personnel policy is available for review in the Human Resources Office at City Hall, 344 West Main Street, during regular business hours. A job applicant receiving a conditional offer of employment will be given a complete policy at least one day prior to testing.

AUXILIARY AIDS AND ASSISTANCE

If you have a job-related disability and require a reasonable accommodation to compete in the application process, please contact the Human Resources Office at City Hall, 344 West Main Street, telephone number 507/537-6790.

APPLICANT CERTIFICATION, AUTHORIZATION, AND RELEASE

I certify that all information I have provided in this application for employment is true and complete to the best of my knowledge. I understand and agree that any false statements or omission of information contained in this application or any supplemental materials I submit may disqualify me from further consideration for employment or may result in immediate dismissal, without notice or benefits, if discovered at a later date. False information or misrepresentation may subject me to the penalty provisions in accordance with MN Statute 43A.39. I acknowledge that if offered a position with the City of Marshall, that employment is "at will" and that employment may be terminated by either the City of Marshall or me at any time, with or without notice.

I authorize the City of Marshall and/or any agency acting on its behalf to investigate/verify all information I provided on this application and any supplemental materials I submitted. I understand that if, in the Employment Experience section I have answered "No" to the question, "May we contact this employer?," contact with my current employer will not be made without my specific authorization. I authorize the collection, use and release of any and all information concerning me, including information of a confidential or privileged nature, which relates to my employment. Moreover, I hereby release the City of Marshall and any agent acting on its behalf from any and all liability of whatsoever nature by reason of requesting such information from any person. I understand that the failure to provide the data required for this position, including my signature, may result in the rejection of my application.

Note for on-line applicants: by submitting my application via e-mail, I do agree that all the information provided is true and accurate. If I am invited to an interview, I will be requested to sign my original application at that time.

I declare that all information provided is true and complete and acknowledge that I have read and understand the information above.
